In March of 2011, the Board heard, discussed, and issued a written decision on an appeal from an administrative decision of the Department of Land Use, Application No. 2010-0839-SA, wherein the Applicant challenged the Department's ability to require the Applicant to resubmit its project as a resubdivision plan. This project, involving the development of the site of the former Three Little Bakers golf course in Pike Creek, is or was the subject of several lawsuits in both the Superior Court and the Court of Chancery. The Board ultimately decided in the Department's favor on the appeal. The Applicant subsequently appealed the Planning Board's decision to the Superior Court, where it is now awaiting decision.
