Rockwood Park is one of the most unique parks in Delaware. The Rockwood Mansion, which is on the National Register of Historic Places, is considered an outstanding example of Rural Gothic architecture.

Rockwood was home to two of Wilmington’s most prominent families-Joseph Shipley, who started construction of the house in 1851, and Edward Bringhurst and his family from 1891 until 1965. In addition to the mansion house and conservatory, the estate is comprised of a porter’s lodge, gardener’s cottage, barn and other ancillary structures.

New Castle County Department of Special Services

Welcome to New Castle County parks!

We offer a wide variety of recreational opportunities to residents of all ages and interests from our flagship Rockwood, Glasgow and Carousel parks, to miles of trails in the Middle Run Valley Natural Area to athletic fields, dog parks and so much more in neighborhoods throughout our county.

Whether you are looking for a walking trail to explore the outdoors, a playground for your kids, or a pocket of scenic open space to reflect and unwind, you are just minutes away from one of the 247 parks in our county park system.

I invite you to visit www.nccde.org/parks to learn more about our county parks, download park and trail maps and reserve a park facility for your next social gathering.

Hiking Trails

Admission to the park is free. The garden and grounds are open daily from dawn to dusk.

Rockwood Park is the perfect location for a casual stroll along the trails that show a variety of views through the park. More than two miles of lighted walking trails wind their way through Rockwood’s 72 acres. Paved trails are available for walking, running or bike riding.

For a more extensive hike continue on through the Estate’s connection with the Delaware Greenway System. Information is available at www.delawaregreenways.org

The Museum

The Museum, in the east side of the Mansion, is open for tours Wednesday - Saturday from 10:00am to 4:00pm, and Sunday noon to 4:00pm. Tours begin on the hour. Museum Admission includes the current exhibit in the museum.

Special Occasions

The spacious North and South Lawns are available to rent for weddings and our Parlors are also available for business meetings and family get-togethers.
