CLASS SPECIFICATION

Title: MASTER POLICE CORPORAL

Approved:

GENERAL STATEMENT OF DUTIES: Performs general duty police work in the protection of life and property throughout the County; prevents violation of statutes and ordinances; investigates and suppresses disturbances; investigates complaints; makes arrests and issues summonses when appropriate; does related work as required.

DISTINGUISHING FEATURES OF THE CLASS: An employee in this class performs work of varied police assignments. This class is distinguished from the Police Officer class in that the Master Police Corporal has good knowledge of the duties assignable to the Police Officer and is qualified to perform all duties assignable to the Police Officer class and, in addition, is able to handle the most complex as a result of long service. This employee is expected to take the lead in assignments and demonstrate the correct police techniques. The rank of Master Corporal shall also be subject to the following provisions:

- (1) The Master Corporal rank may be lost by an unsatisfactory performance evaluation and/or serious disciplinary action.
- (2) The Master Corporal rank, once obtained and lost, would be reinstated once a satisfactory performance evaluation is obtained.
- (3) It is understood that the rank of Master Corporal is not a supervisory position but recognition of satisfactory years of service and leadership.
- (4) It is also understood that the rank of Master Corporal does not give preference to that officer for consideration of any promotional opportunity other than the years of service that are considered when determining seniority points.

EXAMPLES OF WORK (Illustrative Only)
